

General Terms and Conditions of Sale

First of all, thank you for reading this document. We remain at your entire disposal if you have any questions or remarks.

You have finalized a Mission, sold to your client (hereinafter the "Client"), and you would like to receive the corresponding invoice payment shortly.

Defacto offers a financing service for companies, through the provision of equity loans (hereinafter the "Financing"). The equity loans are loans which, in case of insolvency proceeding of the borrower, are reimbursed after all other senior creditors.

Malt (hereinafter the "Partner") wishes to offer You (hereinafter referred to as the "Borrower") the Defacto solution in order to benefit from financing offers to finance your commercial activity on the Partner's platform.

For illustration purpose, the financing service proposed by the Partner and Defacto could be sum up as follow :

- When you have finalized a mission via the Partner's website, after acceptance of the corresponding invoice by You and then by your Client, the Partner contracts on your behalf an equity loan from Defacto through a Loan Agreement. The amount of the equity loan will equal the amount due by your Client for the mission.
- This Loan Agreement allows you to receive, in the very few hours or days after the end of your mission, the entire amount owed to you by your Client.
- When the Client pays the amount owed for your mission to the Partner, the latter reimburses Defacto, in your name and on your behalf, with a sum corresponding to the amount of the equity loan. If the Client does not pay the amount owed to you by the due date, the Partner, who is liable of this Loan Contract (as defined in Article 4 hereinafter), shall proceed to reimburse Defacto, on your behalf, for the equity loan.

To support the financing of the various missions that You carry out on the Partner's marketplace, the Financing will be made available in one or more tranches (hereinafter, the "Tranches" or, individually, a "Tranche") each corresponding to an equity loan independent of those granted under the other tranches and subject to the common provisions of these General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter the "GTC").

These general terms and conditions of sale define the rights of the Parties and their respective obligations under the Financing. Each Tranche will then be the subject of a separate agreement (each referred to hereinafter as the "Loan Agreement").

In addition, the Partner shall be liable for the good execution of these Loan Agreements, especially in the case of default payment from the Client.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT HAS BEEN AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Defacto

- may be freely assigned or transferred by the Lender, without the prior written consent of the Borrower, without in any way modifying the terms and conditions agreed between the Parties in the Financing Agreements.

Article 11 FORCE MAJEURE

Neither the Borrower nor the Lender shall be liable for the non-performance of their contractual obligations under the Financing Agreements to the extent that such non-performance is the result of force majeure as defined by the Civil Code and the case law of the French “Cour de Cassation” and courts. In addition, force majeure shall only release the Party invoking it from its contractual obligations to the extent and for the time that it is prevented from performing them.

Article 12 TRANSMISSION OF FINANCING CONTRACTS

Rights and/or obligations under the Financing Agreements:

- may not be assigned or transferred by the Borrower without the prior written consent of the Lender;
- may be freely assigned or transferred by the Lender, without the prior written consent of the Borrower, without in any way modifying the terms and conditions agreed between the Parties in the Financing Agreements.

Article 13 AMENDMENT - EXERCISE OF RIGHTS - PARTIAL INVALIDITY - COMPLETENESS - UNFORESEEN CIRCUMSTANCES

The GTC can only be modified by express written agreement of the Parties. Any modification shall be formalized in a written amendment, duly accepted by the Parties. This amendment will then be considered as forming an integral part of the Financing Agreements.

The failure of a Party to exercise or partially exercise any right or remedy under the Financing Agreements shall not constitute a waiver by such Party of any right or remedy in the future. The failure of a Party to exercise or partially exercise any right or remedy shall not constitute a waiver by such Party of the right or remedy to exercise such right or remedy again or to exercise any other right or remedy.

If any provision of the Financing Agreements is found to be invalid or inapplicable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions of the Financing Agreements shall continue to apply. In addition, the Parties agree, in good faith negotiations, to replace the unenforceable or invalid provisions with other provisions of comparable effect. The failure of either Party to replace invalid or unenforceable provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions or the valid portion of a partially invalid provision which shall be effective to the extent permitted by law.

The Financing Agreements alone express the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to their subject matter and supersede and cancel any prior agreements, correspondence or documents that they (or any of them) may have entered into or communicated to each other with the same or similar subject matter as this Agreement.

The Parties represent and acknowledge that the provisions of Article 1195 of the Civil Code shall not apply to their respective obligations under the Financing Agreements, and that they shall have no claim of any kind under Article 1195 of the Civil Code.

The Parties have agreed to enter into the Financing Agreements electronically in accordance with the provisions of Articles 1366 and 1367 of the Civil Code, by means of an API call at the following address <https://api.getdefacto.com/loans>.

Borrower represents and warrants to Lender that:

- The electronic acceptance by him of the Financing Agreements binds him validly in the same terms as if he had signed them on paper;
- The electronic acceptance of the Borrower on the Financing Agreements reliably identifies the Borrower as the Borrower and guarantees the Borrower's relationship to the Financing Agreements.

The Parties therefore declare that the electronic version of the Financing Agreements constitutes the original document and is perfectly valid between them.

The Parties declare that electronically acceptance of the Financing Agreements constitute literal evidence within the meaning of Article 1367 of the Civil Code and have the same evidential value as a written document on paper in accordance with Article 1366 of the Civil Code and may be validly opposed.

The Parties therefore undertake not to contest the admissibility, enforceability or evidential value of Financing Agreements accepted in electronic form.

Article 16 APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

The Financing Agreements shall be governed by and construed in accordance with French law.

Any dispute concerning the interpretation, validity, execution of the present contract and/or the operations, which will follow and/or result from it will, in the first place, be solved by amicable means and in the absence of an amicable solution within two months following the occurrence of the disagreement, submitted to the Commercial Court of Paris.
